

Don't Crash Twice, It Ain't Nice

[Mike & Ric Dylan]

It ain't no use to turn on diagnostics,
The truth I never know'd
And it ain't no good to enlighten up the client
He's on the dark side of the road

When your 'Berry chimes at the break of dawn
Log into Windows, babe, but I'll be gone
Reliability's the reason I'll be travellin' on
So don't crash twice, it ain't nice.

So long, Honeywell
Where I'm bound I can't tell
But "system" is too good a word, babe
So I'll just say "go to hell"

I'm just runnin' and a-debuggin', single-steppin' on thru the code
I once loved my job, "You're a fool", I was told
I gave it my heart, but it ate up my soul
So don't crash twice, it ain't nice
